

REPORT IN ENGLISH

Cáceres 2031 joins the European Erasmus 65+ project

- Project: Erasmus 65+, an international exchange initiative for people over the age of 65.
- Funding: €60,000 through the European Erasmus+ programme, under the Small-scale Partnerships in Adult Education scheme.
- Partners: Kunst Leuven/LOV2030 (Belgium), project coordinator; VHS Hildesheim (Germany) and Cáceres 2031 (Spain).
- European Capitals of Culture connection: Leuven will be European Capital of Culture in 2030, Hildesheim bid for the 2025 title, and Cáceres is bidding for 2031.
- Working meeting: Carlos Gago, Head of Cultural and Artistic Programming at Cáceres 2031, attended the meeting held in Hildesheim from 13 to 15 October.
- Next steps: Development of the pilot phase, definition of participants, activities, inclusive methodologies and the exchange schedule between the three countries.
- Collaboration with Hildesheim: Gago met with the team responsible for the legacy of Hildesheim's European Capital of Culture bid to explore new partnerships and learn from its experience.
- Objectives: Promote active European citizenship, cultural inclusion and intergenerational learning among older people.
- Impact for Cáceres 2031: Strengthening European partnerships, implementing the Transcultural methodology and building a lasting cultural legacy ahead of 2031.
