Brussels, 20.4.2009
COM(2009) 176 final

Recommendation for a

COUNCIL DECISION

On the European Capital of Culture event for the year 2013

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Decision 1622/2006/EC of the European Parliament and the Council of 24 October 2006 establishing a Community action for the European Capital of Culture event for the years 2007 to 2019,[1] lays down the procedure of designation of the European Capitals of Culture. According to Article 2 of this Decision, from 2009 onwards, two cities of two Member States will be designated as European Capitals of Culture, in turn, according to the chronological order set out in the Annex to the Decision. France and Slovakia are entitled to host the event in 2013.

The nomination for European Capitals of Culture concerning the year 2013 onwards is submitted to the following process.

A call for submissions of applications is published by each of the Member States concerned no later than six years before the event. A selection panel composed of 13 independent experts in the cultural sector is convened for a pre selection meeting no later than five years before the event. It assesses the applications received against the criteria laid down in article 4 of Decision 1622/2006/EC and agrees on a short list of candidate cities which have to be considered further after completing their application.

Each of the Member States concerned convenes the panel for final selection, 9 months after the pre-selection meeting. After an extensive evaluation of the pre selected cities based on the criteria laid down for the action, the panel recommends one city for the title in each Member State concerned.

On the basis of these recommendations, both Member States nominate one city each to be European Capital of Culture and notify the European Parliament, the Council, the Commission and the Committee of the Regions no later than four years before the event in question is due to begin.

The European Parliament may forward an opinion to the Commission no later than 3 months after receipt of the nominations.

The Council, acting on a recommendation from the Commission, officially designates the cities in question for the year for which they have been nominated.

After completion of the two rounds competition described above, the panel recommended that Marseille (France) and Košice (Slovakia) host the event in 2013 in its reports dated September and October 2008 respectively. Both Member States notified these nominations to the European Parliament, the Council, the Commission and the Committee of the Regions by end 2008.

The European Parliament forwarded its favourable opinion to Commissioner Figel' in early March 2009.

Consequently, the Commission, in accordance with Article 9.3 of Decision 1622/2006/EC submits to the Council the appended recommendation for the official designation of Marseille and Košice respectively for the 2013 European Capital of Culture event.
